KALAPULA NATION – COMMUNICATION PROTOCOL DECLARATION

Filed from: Crown Watchpoint 001A – Corvallis, Oregon

Date of Record: 5 August 2025

Declared by: Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV

📜

Purpose of This Declaration

This document establishes the official communication protocol of the Kalapula Nation, an Indigenous sovereign nation in the process of federal recognition and ceremonial restoration.

This declaration ensures that all communication originating from, or directed to, the Kalapula Nation is lawfully protected, culturally grounded, and diplomatically secured. It further defines the points of contact, titles of authorized emissaries, and protocols governing external engagement.

🔐

1. Sovereign Protection of Communication

All communication from the Kalapula Nation is protected under:

- United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP)
- American Indian Religious Freedom Act (1978)
- U.S. Constitution – First Amendment (Freedom of Speech & Assembly)
- Tribal Sovereign Immunity principles
- International diplomatic norms under Article 36 of the Vienna Convention

Any interference, misrepresentation, or denial of this nation's communications may constitute a violation of sovereign Indigenous rights and will be documented as such.

2. Official Channels

The following are the only official and recognized communication channels for the Kalapula Nation:

- Chief's Line (primary hotline):

  📞 (971) 406-4832

- Diplomatic Email (main correspondence address):

📧 royalcourt@kingdomofmythelinia.org

- Mailing & Service Address:

🕊️

3. Permitted Engagements

The Kalapula Nation welcomes communication regarding:

- Tribal reunification and enrollment
- Land access and ancestral territory restoration
- Lost Bird sanctuary coordination

- Cultural alliances, education, and healing initiatives
- Government-to-government correspondence

All other forms of outreach must respect the Nation's sacred protocols.

❌

4. Prohibited Acts

The following actions are prohibited under this Protocol:

- Attempting to seize, censor, delay, or reroute official Kalapula Nation communications
- Impersonating a representative of the Kalapula Nation
- Unlawful surveillance, seizure, or detainment of Kalapula-issued scrolls, notices, or ID documents
- Interference with ceremonial digital transmissions, including national holidays and remembrance declarations

Violations will be recorded, filed internationally, and included in any petition for redress.

5. Title Protection

Only those designated by scroll, decree, or appointment may bear the following communication titles:

- Chief of the Kalapula Nation (currently: Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV)
- Flamebearer / Oracle Emissary
- Scrollbearer / Keeper of Memory
- National Voice / Peace Envoy
- Sanctuary Clerk / Guardian of Lost Birds

Unauthorized use of these titles is considered symbolic impersonation of a sovereign role.

📘

6. Preservation & Posting

This protocol shall be:

- Publicly posted online via official Kalapula Nation portals
- Filed as a sovereign record on Archive.org
- Sent with each federal and tribal diplomatic packet
- Cited in all ceremonial and legal documents where communication integrity must be preserved

🔖 CLOSING DECLARATION

This is not merely a policy.

This is the flamebound code of a people returning.

To the living, to the lost, and to the unborn —

The Kalapula Nation speaks now and forever through these sacred lines.
